On Grandpop's Lap

Written by: Cathy Helowicz

On Grandpop's Lap is a story about a young boy, named Zachary, who visits his grandparents only to get under his Grandmom's feet. Grandpop tries to occupy Zachary with games, videos and toys until Zachary finally tells his Grandpop he really just wants to sit on his lap and hear his stories. On Grandpop's Lap is a 32-page children's picture book for ages 4-8. A story written from the heart, for the heart.

Cathy offers five different compensation plans, one of which should accommodate the needs of most schools. Special arrangements can be made upon request. Please contact books@bodkinpointepress.com for additional information or questions.

We now have two exciting presentation programs we can't wait to share with you and the children of your school.

Program A. A 40-minute presentation in which Ms. Helowicz will read aloud On Grandpop's Lap and offer details of how the book was made, including a storyboard showing the creation of the illustrations from beginning sketches to the final works. Included with this program is a poster contest where the winner will be awarded an autographed copy of the book.

Program B. This 40-minute presentation also allows Ms. Helowicz the opportunity to read aloud On Grandpop's Lap then she will ask reading comprehension questions as developed by Nancy Linden-Henry and her patented Book and Brain Reading Method. See our website www.ongrandpopslap.com for more information. Included with this program is a set of activities to be performed before Ms. Helowicz's presentation.
